DELHI

The capital of modern India has behind it centuries of history, which has enriched its culture. Nowhere has tradition blended with modernity on a scale as evident in Delhi. Age old monuments stand cheek by jowl with ultra modern hi-rise buildings.

Delhi has been the seat of power for centuries. Today old and new city combine to present a harmonious whole offering the traveler, elegant shops, broad lustrous lined avenues, sun warmed elegant forts and mosques that were once the stronghold of Mughal powers and colourful bazaars.

AGRA

Agra is a city on the banks of the Yamuna River in the northern state of Uttar Pradesh, India. It finds mention in the epic Mahabharata where it was called Agreva, or 'the border of the forest'. Legend ascribes the founding of the city to Raja Badal Singh (around 1475), whose fort, Badalgarh stood on or near the site of the present Fort. It achieved fame as the capital of the Mughal emperors from 1526 to 1658 and remains a major tourist destination because of its many splendid Mughal-era buildings, most notably the Taj Mahal, Agra Fort and Fatehpur Sikri, all three of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

JAIPUR

Built by Sawai Jai Singh, the city of Jaipur is amongst the first of India's planned cities. The ancient heart of the Pink City still beats in its fairy tale palaces; rugged fortresses perched on barren hills and broad avenues. Jaipur has a timeless appeal in its colorful bazaars that delights with its handlooms and trinkets. Beautifully laid out gardens and parks, attractive monuments and marvelous heritage hotels, once the residence of Maharajas, are worth admiration that makes a trip to the pink city a memorable one.

Golden Triangle Tour is the most popular tourist circuit in India. This incredible Golden Triangle Tour Itinerary comprising the three famous cities of India-Delhi, Agra and Jaipur having grandeur, glory & history.

TOUR PROGRAM

Day 1):
May 22, 2014

DELHI/AGRA:

DELHI

1230 hrs: Lunch in the hotel.

1400 hrs: Visit Taj Mahal (W.H.). The Taj Mahal is synonymous with beauty, love and grandeur. This white marble mausoleum, built on the banks of river Yamuna, epitomizes Shah Jahan's love for his wife, Mumtaz Mahal. Designed by a local architect, Ustad Ahmad Lahori, the entire complex, with gardens, gateway structures, and mosque, was completed in 1643. More than three centuries later, the monument retains its romantic aura. Set like a jewel within gardens whose four-fold design echoes the Islamic idea of paradise, its millions of visitors marvel at the play of light on its marble dome which seems to turn from rose to pearl with the passage of the sun. There is much to see - the exquisite calligraphy, the lyrical floral motifs of the pietra dura decorations which form a mosaic of colour; and the fountains and canals of the gardens which reflect the monument in a series of ethereal images.

1600 hrs: Visit Agra Fort (W.H.). Agra Fort is located on the right bank of the river Yamuna in the city of Agra in Uttar Pradesh. It is one of the most important and robustly built strong hold of the Mughals, embellished with number of richly decorated buildings encompassing the imposing Mughal style of art and architecture. It was constructed by the third Mughal emperor Akbar on the remains of an ancient site known as Badalgarh.

1930 hrs: Diner in the hotel.

AGRA/JAIPUR:

- Early breakfast at the hotel.
- Check-out & visit Fatehpur Sikri.
- Later drive to Jaipur.
- Lunch in Lake view Udai Vilas Midway.
- Arrive Jaipur and visit City Palace, Jantar Mantar
- Visit Hawa Mahal and Local Market around
- Check-in at Jaipur hotel.
- Diner in the hotel.

0630 Hrs: Breakfast at hotel

0730 hrs: Check-out and proceed to Fatehpur Sikri.

Fatehpur Sikri, Akbar's City of Victory, lies on a hill top almost 40 kms from Agra built over the ruins of hundreds of Jain temples. It has two different complexes- the royal enclosure of the palaces with the harem and official buildings; and the dargah of the Sufi saint, Salim Chisti with a mosque and gateway. To wander around the red sandstone courtyards of this World Heritage Site is to travel back in time to an Imperial splendour. The buildings at Fatehpur Sikri belong to a composite style of architecture with the predominating Islamic style cleverly blended with local Rajasthani and Gujarati styles, a melting pot of cultures. In its heyday, the city was a large and magnificent township; this is clearly visible even today, centuries after it was abandoned.

12:00 Hrs: Lunch in Lake Palace Udai Vilas.

1430 Hrs: Arrive Jaipur and visit City Palace & Jantar Mantar.

The city tour takes in a visit to the Maharaja Sawai Man Singh II Museum housed in the City Palace, part of which is still the home of the Jaipur royal family. The museum has a collection of royal robes and precious textiles, Mughal carpets, an armoury of old weapons, miniature paintings portraying court scenes, battle scenes and processions and manuscripts. Also visit the awe-inspiring Jantar Mantar, an observatory built in the 18th century with a collection of giant masonry astronomical instruments that continue to provide accurate information even today.

1730 hrs: Visit Hawa Mahal (Palace of Winds) - a landmark of Jaipur and perhaps its signature monument, a five-storied wonder with a spectacular pyramidal facade and overhanging windows with latticed screens (there are 953 of them), domes and spires. Later visit the local market around or shopping etc.

19:30 hrs: Diner in the hotel.

May 24, 2015

SIGHTSEEING IN JAIPUR:

- Early breakfast
- Visit Amber Fort
- Lunch in the hotel
- Visit Laxmi Narayan Temple
- Visit Jaigarh
- Diner in the hotel.

0830 Hrs: Visit Amber Fort - (pronounced Amer) was the most formidable fortified palace in Amer, the former capital of the Kachhwaha Rajputs before it shifted to Jaipur. Its construction was started by Raja Man Singh I in 1592 and was completed by Mirza Raja Jai Singh and Sawai Jai Singh over a period of about two centuries. The fort, set atop rugged hills, rises above the waters of the Maota Lake. Within its walls lies one of India's best-preserved medieval citadels, a stunning complex of gardens, temples, pavilions and courtyards. The Amber Fort is, in roughly equal proportions, a pleasure-palace, a former centre of administration and a military stronghold -- all worth seeing. It is a classic fusion of Mughal and Hindu architecture, built in red sandstone and white marble.

1230 Hrs: Lunch at a local restaurant.

1400 Hrs: Visit Jaigarh Fort.

1530 Hrs: A visit to a local bazaar / shopping (optional).
